2Q 2025: Strengths and challenges to be addressed

Key Strengths & Challenges to be Addressed

Strengths

Resilient Asset Quality

Asset quality remains resilient despite macroeconomic challenges, supported by an improvement in LAR to 6.92% and a stable NPL at 1.24%, driven by our strategic focus on resilient value chain segments within our ecosystem.

Strong Non-Interest Income

1H25 non-interest income grew by 7.82% YoY, driven by treasury income which grew 36%, and digital recurring fee income at 12% YoY.

Stable Yield of Loan

Yield of loan improved to 7.86% in 2Q25 from 7.64% in 1Q25 bringing 1H25 yield to 7.75%, driven by loan repricing discipline.

Challenges

Operational Costs

Consolidated Operational Expenses grew 25% YoY in 1H25 driven by both personnel and other expenses as well as G&A expense, driving CIR toward 44.5% in 1H25.

Loan Growth Remained Modest but On Track

QoQ loan growth remained modest at 2% (11% YoY), though we expect momentum to accelerate in the second half. Overall loan growth is on track to achieve our 8-10% loan growth guidance by Dec-25.

Pressure in Cost of Fund Remains High

Persistently tight liquidity conditions are exerting upward pressure on funding costs, creating a challenging cost of funds environment in 1H25.
