

GRATIFICATION POLICY

Bank Mandiri recognizes the importance of controlling gratification to ensure the company's operations adhere to business principles that uphold the value of integrity. This control mechanism is a crucial part of embedding the values of Good Governance within the Bank for all employees, driving behavior based on ethics and responsibility in daily interactions with customers, vendors, partners, and other stakeholders. In addition, this mechanism safeguards the organization from actions that violate the principles of gratification prohibition while strengthening ethical and sustainable business practices.

Bank Mandiri has established an Operating Technical Guideline for Gratification Control that stipulates the prohibition on receiving gratuities for all employees. The Bank remains committed to continuously enhancing the effectiveness of its gratification control measures, ensuring they align with evolving standards and best practices for the Bank's good governance.

Anti-Bribery Management System

To continuously foster Gratification Control program, specifically on anti-bribery that in line with the ISO 37001:2016 Standard of Anti-Bribery Management System, Bank Mandiri has stipulated the following matters:

1. Prohibits bribery practices and its kinds in the company's environment;
2. Compliance with laws and regulations and other prevailing rules related to anti-bribery;
3. Align the anti-bribery policies with the company's objectives;
4. Corporate governance that fosters the achievement of anti-bribery goals;
5. Commitment to fulfil the requirements of Anti-Bribery Management System;

Gratification Control Management

The Organization Structure of Gratification Control Unit (UPG) is managed by the Compliance Unit, namely the Compliance Group. The UPG is established according to the Board of Directors Decree No. KEP.DIR/64/2021 dated 8 December 2021, and renewed by the Board of Directors Decree No. KEP.DIR/64/2021 dated 8 December 2021. The UPG functions to control gratuities within Bank Mandiri, which in carrying out their duties are assisted Regional Business Control (RBC) – Anti Money Laundering Officer (AMLO).

Gratification Reporting Mechanism

Bank Mandiri has a gratification reporting mechanism that is adjusted to the KPK reporting mechanism, with the following charts:

Socialization of Gratification Policy

Socialization on gratification control is conducted on an ongoing basis across all organizational levels. In its implementation, the Gratification Control Unit (UPG) coordinates with RBC-AMLO. These activities are delivered directly to working units at the Head Office, Regional Offices, and Branch Offices, as well as through regular classes such as ODP, SDP, and BBMC. Throughout 2025, socialization activities were conducted for Bank Mandiri employees and third parties through vendor meetings.

Other media used in disseminating gratification control policies are:

1. Installation of Gratification Control Posters on email blasts, screen savers, home pages of internal websites of Bank Mandiri employees, and Mandiri Magazine.
2. Invite all Bank Mandiri customers/vendors not to provide gratuities related to religious celebrations through the media of national newspapers and Bank Mandiri’s social media (Instagram Story, X, and Facebook), as well as Memorandums and Letters to the Board of Commissioners, Directors and Employees of Bank Mandiri at the Head Office and Regionals and Subsidiaries.

Gratification Reports In 2025

Bank Mandiri employees who accept/reject gratuities must report their receipt/rejection directly to the KPK through the GOL application (Online Gratification) with the <http://gol.kpk.go.id> address or UPG through the Mandiri Online Gratification application (GO Mandiri) with the web address of <https://ipa.corp.bankmandiri.co.id/GOMandiri>.

Throughout 2025, the Gratification Control Unit (UPG) received a total of 52 reports on the receipt/rejection of gratuities. The reported gratuities included bribes, food/beverages, honorariums related to official duties, as well as goods and/or official facilities.
