

THE EVALUATION OF RISK MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Bank Mandiri constantly evaluates the effectiveness of the risk management systems. The evaluation entails adjusting the strategy and the framework of risks as the constituent of risk management policies, considering the adequacy of risk management information systems and the adequacy of risk identification, measurement, monitoring and control processes.

An example of evaluation on the risk management policy is the annual evaluation on the Risk Management Policy and Standard Procedure. The Board of Commissioners plays an active role in the evaluation of the risk management system by reviewing findings of the evaluation undertaken by the Board of Directors as the organ in charge of effective implementation of the risk management system. The annual evaluation results show that during 2019 Bank Mandiri has implemented fairly good risk management.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM

The Internal Control System (ICS) refers to a monitoring mechanism which is established by the company's management on an on-going basis. An effective ICS is an important component in the company management and becomes the foundation of the company operational activities which are proper and secured. An effective ICS can help the Board of Commissioners and Directors in safeguarding the assets of the company, ensuring the availability of credible financial and managerial reporting, increasing the company's compliance with laws and regulations, and decreasing the risk of loss, deviation, and violations of prudential aspects. The application of ICS in the company refers to the Internal Control Policy (ICP).

As a process executed by all levels of the company's organization, ICS is applied in the strategy setting in all work units, and it is designed to capably identify the plausible occurrence of an event that can impact the company, to manage risk in order to still remain within the risk appetite, and to provide adequate confidence in order to achieve the company goals.

THE OBJECTIVES OF CONTROLS

The objectives of implementing an effective ICS are classified into 4 (four) main objectives as follows:

1. The Compliance Objective

It is to ensure that all of the company's business activities have been undertaken resting upon the applicable laws and regulations, both the provisions issued by the Government, the Banking Supervision Authority, the Capital Market Authority and the company's internal policies, provisions, as well as procedures.

2. The Information Objective

It is to provide accurate, complete, on-time, and relevant information required in an effort to make appropriate and accountable decisions, including financial and non-financial reports needed by both internal and external parties of the company.

3. The Operational Objective

It is to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency in using assets and other resources as well as to protect the Bank from the risk of losses including those on account of fraud event.

4. The Objective of Risk Awareness Culture

It is to identify weaknesses and to assess deviations early and re-assess the fairness of the internally prevailing policies alongside the procedures at the Bank on an ongoing basis.

CONTROL ENVIRONMENT

The control environment indicates the entire commitment, behavior, care, and steps of the Board of Directors and Commissioners of Bank Mandiri in executing the operational activities. The Board of Commissioners is responsible for ensuring whether the Directors have monitored the effectiveness of the ICS implementation. The Board of Commissioners plays an active role in ascertaining that there are improvements to the company's problems that can potentially reduce the effectiveness of ICS.

The directors are responsible for setting the policies and strategies as well as internal control procedures. They are also responsible for monitoring the sufficiency and effectiveness of ICS. In addition, the Board of Commissioners and Directors are responsible for enhancing the work ethics and high integrity as well as for creating an organizational culture subjected to all employees appertaining to the importance of internal controls prevailing in Bank Mandiri .
